EXAMINATION REPORT - SEPARATE SHEET

To Chapter V

V.1. Independent Claim 1

V.1.1, Novelty

BE-A-473218 (document D1) describes a trailer and a method of steering a trailer according to the features of the preambles of claims 1 and 15. This prior art trailer is also shown in Figs 1a and 1b of the present patent application.

Claims 1 and 15 differ therefrom in that the connecting means also allow a controlled transversal movement of the frame in relation to the wheel frame in a direction towards or away from said turning point simultaneously with said relative turning of the frame; and in that the trailer comprises actuator means for producing said transversal movement of the frame.

These novel characterising features solve the object of the present invention to provide a trailer that can be steered through curves and that reduces the limitations that may be imposed on the shape of the load.

Therefore, the subject-matter of the present claim 1 seems to fulfil the provisions of Art. 33 (2) PCT (Novelty) in view of the state of the art as mentioned in the search report.

V.1.2. Inventive Step

The characterising features of claims 1 and 15 are not contained in or do not seem to be rendered obvious from the state of the art as mentioned in the search report.

The independent claims 1 and 15 seem therefore to fulfil the provisions of Art 33 (3) PCT.

V.1.3. Dependent Claims 2-14

Claims 2-14 depending on claim 1 and having as subject-matter special and advantageous embodiments of the invention according to claim 1 seem, together with its subject-matter, to fulfil the provisions of Art. 33 and Rule 6 PCT.

INTERNATIONAL PRELIMINARY International application No. PCT/DK 03/00826 EXAMINATION REPORT - SEPARATE SHEET

V.1.4. Industrial Applicability

Claims 1 and 15 seem to fulfil the provisions of Art. 33 (4) PCT, because a corresponding trailer can be produced and used at least in the automotive industry.
